Alexander Building Construction Co. announces key position changes

Harrisburg, PA, April 13, 2009 . . . Alexander Building Construction announces three key position changes at the company. Stephen Wilt is now General Manager of the Harrisburg region and Chris Magent, PhD, LEED AP is now General Manager of the State College region. Stephen has been with Alexander for ten years and has served as a Project Manager, Sr. Project Manager and Manager of Operations. Chris has been with Alexander for four years and has served as Director of Business Development and Manager of the State College office. Rick Seitz, Alexander's President, says "This change will allow both Steve and Chris to provide executive oversight of projects in each region and will assure continued customer satisfaction on all of our projects."

Alexander also announces that Lauren Herman is now Associate Director of Business Development. Lauren has been with the company for seven years and has served as a project accountant and the marketing coordinator for the firm. Lauren is responsible for maintaining relationships with clients, as well as architecture and engineering firms. Lauren also oversees the company's corporate communications, including marketing and public relations activities.
